

Glenn Nowak, AIA, NCARB

Associate Professor, Graduate Coordinator
Hospitality Design Concentration, University of Nevada Las Vegas School of Architecture

Glenn NP Nowak, Associate Professor of Architecture, is the founder and coordinator of the Hospitality Design (HD) Concentration at the UNLV School of Architecture.

Since the HD Studio's inception in the fall of 2010, the entertainment capital of the world has become an extension of the academic studio for students interested in collaborative explorations in design research with leaders in the hospitality industry. Additionally, Glenn serves as the graduate coordinator of the M. Arch program and serves on the board of The AIA Las Vegas Chapter and other non-profit organizations. His work and design research often involves community-integrated projects that focus on social, environmental, and economic sustainability.

He earned his Master of Architecture from Cornell University and his Bachelor of Architecture and Bachelor of Science in Environmental Design from Ball State. He is a licensed architect in Nevada.
