

David Mahood

Co-Principal, Olive Hospitality Consulting

David Mahood, LEED AP, is the former V.P. of Sustainable Hospitality, NEWH, and a founding board member of the Sustainable Furnishings Council. Mahood has 30 years of experience in commercial furnishings, which includes starting Olive Designs in 1998, a pioneer company in green furniture manufacturing. He is one of the principals of Olive Hospitality Consulting, a firm providing a range of sustainable manufacturing training and consulting services for the hospitality industry. Mahood has authored numerous articles related to sustainability and the preservation of biodiversity and has lectured on these topics on two continents. In 2014, he received an MBA in Sustainability from San Francisco Institute of Architecture.